

Let's Practice!

Vanessa talks about the things she wishes she had.

Instructions: Read the text and underline all the sentences that express hopes and wishes for the present and the future.

Vanessa: Well, if I'm being honest, I wish my ears didn't stick out so much. And I guess I wish I had fuller lips. I'm a pretty good musician, but I really wish I could dance better. I enjoy parties and clubs, but I always feel a little bit shy when I get out on the dance floor. I wish I weren't that shy.

Peter: Really? You're an okay dancer.

Vanessa: There is always room for improvement.

Peter: Let's see what else.

Vanessa: I really wish I knew how to speak more languages because my ideal dates all involve travel. I would especially love to go to the culinary hotspots like Italy, Thailand, or France. An ideal date simply must include good food accompanied by a glass of vintage red.

Let's Practice!

Vanessa talks about what she wants in a man.

Instructions: Cross out the mistakes in each sentence.

1. He's absolutely got to in have a washboard stomach.
2. He needs has to be tall.
3. He doesn't need to has be well off, but it would be nice if he had a job.
4. He has to are be spontaneous.